VOL. 12

JULY 2016

NO. 2

Greetings my fellow club members;

Once again the club has had a busy spring. We had another successful Spring Derby even if the water conditions and the wind made it a little challenging.

A few of us had an enjoyable day helping out at the Wounded Warrior fishing tournament. I would encourage you to think about entering this tournament next year. The money raised from this goes to a very good cause, lets help them out. I would like the club to stop by the Loaf a Jug stores every once in awhile and show our appreciation for helping sponsor Take a Kid Fishing. We had a nice day at the lake with the kids. I need to say thanks to all the volunteers that helped out at our events and encourage all club members to come and check out a meeting or give a hand at one of our events.

Enjoy you summer and see you in the fall.

KIDS DAY - JUNE 4TH, 2016

We had a great sunny day! Coffee on for some of the volunteers, mountain dew for the rest. And a great surprise! - 49 kids, 27 volunteers signed up. Our Co-Sponsors Loaf n Jug came in full force!!! Thank you Carl and the gang for the great money donation. We had plenty of hot dogs & hamburgers for lunch- Good grilling!!

Thanks Tyler for the Little Debbies

Thanks to our adults and boat owners- you guys really came through. The kids loved the boat rides and of course fishing out of the boats. The kids took turns, got out and stood in line next to dock waiting for another boat to go right back for more fishing. We could have used 2-3 more boats, but we got by.

Brittany, thanks for your help with the t-shirts and teaching some new help the ropes to painting the shirts.

Thanks to the Mandan school system for the use of the bus, Mrs Allery the bus driver and Nancy for keeping registration straight for me. I appreciate all your help.

p.s. Someone please shut the wind down a little, drop a line, and take a kid fishing. They are our future.
